1973 WORLD CHANGERS

DAVE BROWN
USC CENTER

I BELIEVE THAT CHRIST IS THE ONLY RATIONAL ALTERNATIVE THAT MAN HAS! CHRIST HAS CHANGED MY LIFE FOR THE BETTER! AND CHANGED LIVES CAN CHANGE OUR NATION AND WORLD.

MIKE RYAN

WHEN I BECAME A CHRISTIAN, JESUS' PROMISES PROVED TO BE FOR REAL. HE BEGAN TO WORK IN ME AND CHANGE ME, INCLUDING MY RELATIONSHIP WITH MY WIFE. IT'S BECOME DEEPER AND RICHER THAN EVER BEFORE!

AL GALLAHER
USC TACKLE

AS A FOOTBALL PLAYER AT USC I FELT THAT THE WORST THING THAT COULD HAPPEN TO ME, WOULD BE TO GET HURT. BUT THIS YEAR THAT'S WHAT HAPPENED. AND YET, BECAUSE OF MY RELATIONSHIP WITH CHRIST, I SEE THIS AS A STEPPINGSTONE TO BECOMING A STRONGER PERSON, RATHER THAN AS A TRAGEDY.

ALLAN GRAF
USC GUARD

THE MOST WONDERFUL AND FULLFILLING EXPERIENCE OF MY LIFE WAS ASKING JESUS CHRIST TO COME INTO MY HEART. THIS EXPERIENCE HAS BEEN SO SATISFYING THAT IT HAS GIVEN ME A WHOLE NEW OUTLOOK ON LIFE. I HOPE AND PRAY THAT MANY OTHERS HAVE THE CHANCE TO EXPERIENCE JESUS CHRIST, TOO!

to the street people

A Letter

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

I would like to ask you a question. Day after day when we see you on the street, we smile at you and tell you that Jesus loves you, but you freak out. Why? Are you afraid of love?

Your answer most likely is, "You Jesus Freaks are too aggressive. You're always trying to lay your trip on us when we don't care and don't want it." You're right, sometimes maybe we do come on too strong. But picture this: if you saw someone that you loved very much walking towards a cliff blindfolded, you would probably be pretty aggressive in trying to divert that person from the disaster that lay in front of him. He might get mad at you for being so aggressive, but he wasn't aware of the disaster because he was blindfolded. The same thing is true with us Jesus People. We see you walking, spiritually blindfolded, being fooled by the world into different fake trips that end up in disaster and we try to warn you.

We love you. We have lived on the streets, too, so we know what's coming down. We know of the impending disaster. But we have been diverted from the disaster by Jesus, and now all we want to do is show you what has changed our lives -- because we love you. We're sorry that we scare you, but we'll keep praying for you.
God bless you!

...peace!

You know, I can't think of too many people who don't want peace. We all hope for peace in Viet Nam. We all hope that war won't flare up again in the MidEast. We all want peace on the campuses and on the streets of the city.

But is this possible? Is lasting peace just a dream, or can it become a reality. Yes, it IS possible. But how?

You may have heard the story about the father of a five-year-old boy who was working at home in his study while his wife had gone out for a few hours. It was raining, so his son couldn't play outside. So every few minutes he would get bored and would come into his dad's study to ask him to play. But the father had too much work, so he had to think of some way to keep his son amused. He finally hit on an idea. He tore a picture of a map of the world out of a magazine, ripped it up into little pieces, and said, "Here, son; go put the world back together again."

His son went into another room and began working on the map. Dad figured he had a few hours of uninterrupted work ahead of him, but in less than a half hour, the boy was back, with the pieces of the picture of the world all back in the right places.

The father couldn't believe his son had put the picture back together so quickly, so he asked him how he did it. The boy said, "It wasn't tough at all, dad. You see, on the back side of the picture of the world was a picture of a man. And when I got the man all straightened out, the world was OKAY too!"

So this is the real key to peace. Each person has to have the conflicts straightened out in himself. Each person has to put down greed, and hate, and jealousy, and all those other bad trips. And that's a pretty tough thing to do all by yourself. That's where Jesus Christ comes in. He helps us with the things we can't quite cut on our own. Jesus had some things to say about peace in the Bible. He said, "I am leaving you with a gift -- peace of mind and heart. And the peace I give isn't fragile like the peace the world gives. So don't be troubled or afraid."

Now doesn't that sound like the answer to what we've been talking about? If it's what you're looking for, you can ask for it and get it right now. The peace that Christ can give to your mind and to your total life is not a limited special edition. There's enough to go around.

Right now, where you are, you can ask Jesus for his beautiful gifts, peace, love, freedom, and happiness. Just talk to Him now, or even think something like this in your own mind:

Dear Jesus, I believe that you can hear me, and because you love me you care about what I have to say. I seem to be at war with myself. My head isn't really on straight, and I seem to mess up practically everything I touch. I need you, and I need the peace of mind that you can give me. You promised me in your word, the Bible, that if I asked you, you would become a part of my life and straighten things out for me. And I believe you. Thank you, Jesus, for keeping your promise to me, right now. Amen.

We can help you find out more about Jesus, too, and we want to. Write to me this week. The address is Duane Pederson, Box 1949, Hollywood, California 90028.
